All freight will be handled as quickly as possible with unloading being handled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

If your shipment requires forklift service please complete the freight handling form and forward it to the Halifax office.

We recommend that all of your shipping information be given to the staff person working on your booth in case contact information is required for any reason. As the final move-in day is a Saturday, please be certain to obtain a weekend contact as well.

Label all boxes and crates with the full delivery address and proper number of pieces in the shipment. Please do not combine perishables with your booth freight.

An exhibitor representative must be on hand to sign in all perishables either to the refrigeration room, or the freezer truck located outside. Show management or its agents can not be responsible for this.
